SAGUARO NATIONAL PARK TO HOST HISPANIC COMMUNITY MEETINGS, FEBRUARY 25-29

Tucson, AZ--Saguaro National Park, in cooperation with the University of Idaho, will be hosting a series of focus group discussions, from February 25 through February 29, 2012.

The purpose of the discussions is to hear feedback from local residents about how Saguaro National Park can better serve the Tucson Hispanic community.

Discussions will be held in a variety of locations around Tucson and will be conducted in both English and Spanish. Participants are welcome to bring family members and children.

No previous knowledge about the park is needed.

In return for participating in one 90 minute discussion, one participant per family will receive: a free one-day family admission pass to the park, snacks and refreshments during the discussion and compensation for travel costs.

Interested persons must RSVP to attend a session. They must provide only their first name and zip code. They then will receive a confirmation number to bring to the session.

For more information or to register, please call (520) 733-8602 or email Natalie_Rose@nps.gov.
